CHRISTMAS MESSAGE SENT TO FAR NORTH

New York, N. Y., Dec. 25.—Through the Arctic regions last night, unless the aurora borealis interfered, a wireless message from the sponsors of the Crockerland expedition sped to its leader, Donald B. MacMillan, and his companions at Etah, Greenland, 1600 miles away. It was a Christmas message from the American Museum of Natural History, the American Geographical society and the University of Illinois, and was signed by Dr. Edmund O. Hovey, of the museum, director of the expedition. The message reads:

"Heartiest greetings and best wishes from museum, Geographical society and University of Illinois, and from family and personal friends of yourself and all your party. We are well and are confident of your success in spite of all difficulties, though no word from you has come through yet."

The message was forwarded through the Canadian government channels. It was looked on as a good guess that it would reach its destination and though the wireless outfit of the party is expected to have caught it, it is not powerful enough to send an answer, which is tantalizing to those who want to know about the expedition.

BANK CLERK RUN DOWN BY AUTO

Left Dying on Street in Heart of San Francisco Business District.

MOST BRUTAL MURDER

Driver Puts on More Power and Body Is Dragged 100 Feet.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 25.—As James W. McDermott, an elderly bachelor bank clerk, was returning to his home early today, he was run down by an automobile and left dying at a Market street corner, in the heart of the business district. His skull was fractured, both his legs were broken, and his chest was caved in. He died shortly after at the central emergency hospital.

A more brutal murder it would be hard to imagine. McDermott's limp body became entangled in the running gear of the low-slung powerful run-about, but the two men in the car instead of stopping, or even slowing down, turned on more and more power until the car fairly tore itself loose. McDermott was dragged fully 100 feet.

As a patrol wagon came clanging down the street it passed the runaway automobile going in the opposite direction, but the police were ignorant of what they were wanted for, and the death car got away.

FOUNDER OF THE WOODMEN IS DEAD

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 25.—J. C. Root, sovereign commander of the Woodmen of the World, and founder of that order, died last night at Hendersonville, N. C., according to a telegram received in Omaha late yesterday evening. Intestinal and kindred troubles was given as the cause of his death.

Mr. Root had been traveling in the south in the interests of his order and his condition was not considered grave until two days ago when messages were received requesting that his son, Harry Root, should go to Hendersonville. A. I. Root, another son, was at his father's bedside when he died.

Mr. Root was very prominent as a result of his connection with the Modern Woodmen order and occupied a high position in fraternal circles.

ROCHESTER IS SHIPPING ORE

Some wonderfully rich shipments of ore are being made from the camp of Rochester, according to reports from some of the operations there, and much is being accomplished in the way of development. The camp is just a year old and statements sent out from the district are to the effect that ten cars of ore daily of from thirty to forty tons to the car are shipped out.

The average grade of this ore is given as $35 to the ton and the approximate value of the precious metal shipped daily is placed at $10,500. This product comes from leases on the Rochester mines estate, including the Nos. 1 and 2, Colligan, Cole, Shea and Kallahar and the neighboring properties of the Packard, Buck and Charley and Lincoln Hill. Some of these operators are said to have an abundance of ore in the stopes and other workings have accumulated 2700 sacks ahead of the team capacity. The consistency of the ore deposits in the Lincoln, Buck and Charley and Packard, which are outside of the Rochester holdings, is nothing short of marvelous.

What this ore will show at depth is best demonstrated in the Big Four lease on the Rochester Mines estate. The Gold is another example of this demonstration, and both workings are in the best grade of ore at the greatest depth from the surface that has been attained in the camp. The Cole ground is showing wonderful riches and the recent strike in this property is said to show a foot of $100 ore and two feet of $65, of which $45 is in gold values.

The Shea and Kallahar lease is said to have been shipping 24 tons of $45 ore daily. The Borland lease on the Raven lode has opened up a four-foot vein of $70 ore. H. P. Aldredge has opened up a vein on the surface of the Big Four block giving returns of $260 in gold and silver. There are several new operations under way.

DEFENDER IS NOW JUNK

New York, N. Y., Dec. 25.—From the proud position of queen of all yachts to the junk yards, is the probable fate of the America's cup defender, Reliance. She started upon the last leg of her career yesterday when C. Oliver Iselin, head of the syndicate that built her ten years ago sold her to Captain Leonard Miller, who was associate skipper with the late Captain Charles Barr.

The sale price of the Reliance could not be learned. Her original cost was $800,000. She was built to race against Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock III, and won. It is expected that the new owner will dismantle her.

DIRECTORATE ENLARGED

ESTATES OF FIRE VICTIMS SETTLED

Washington, Dec. 25.—Surrogate Fowler has received orders, it was announced today permitting the administrators of the estates of nine of the 145 persons who were killed in the Triangle Waist company fire on March 25, 1911, to settle their claims against Joseph J. Asch, owner of the building. The claimants receive $75 in each case.

The money was paid by a casualty company in which Asch was insured and the payment was made, not as a compromise for damage because Asch denied liability, but to enable the casualty company to avoid the necessity of holding a reserve against these claims to comply with the insurance laws. These payments are the first that have been made for the death of the fire victims.

THOUSANDS OF POOR PEOPLE MADE HAPPY

Philadelphia, Dec. 25.—Christmas cheer was provided for thousands of poor families and individuals by scores of organizations in this city today. The Salvation Army distributed baskets containing a five-pound chicken, a loaf of bread, vegetables, cranberry sauce, sugar, salt, candy and fruit. The Volunteers of America gave away 800 baskets containing roasts of beef and other essentials for a big dinner. Hundreds of dinners and more than 5000 toys and gifts were distributed by other organizations. The Rotary club, which yesterday distributed 2,600 gifts with automobiles, continued the work today. Special services and dinners were provided for the inmates of the prisons, hospitals and other institutions.

More than 3,500 sailors, attaches of the Atlantic reserve fleet, and 800 marines who could not get home were provided with a bountiful Christmas dinner aboard the several battleships at the Philadelphia navy yards. Concerts were rendered by ship and marine bands.

TRAGEDY WAS A CRIMINAL ACT

Washington, D. C., Dec. 25.—Secretary of Labor Wilson received the following telegram today from Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, who is directing the copper strike at Calumet and vicinity, demanding federal investigation of the Christmas eve tragedy. The telegram, dated last night, was as follows:

"While striking miners with their wives and little ones were arranging for a Christmas tree in a hall at Calumet, Mich., tonight, the door was opened by a person who gave a false alarm of fire. In their effort to get out of the hall, seventy-seven people lost their lives. Circumstances surrounding this terrible occurrence demand immediate investigation by the government. I have wired the president. Will you see him and urge immediate action?"

Secretary Wilson said he would communicate with the president as soon as possible but that he did not know whether the government would have jurisdiction in such a case.

ROMANCE JOINS BROOKLYN.

New York, N. Y., Dec. 25.—The Brooklyn club of the National league announced today that negotiations have been completed with Tommy Romanch, the young shortstop of the Almadarez club in Cuba. Brooklyn stated that the player had accepted their terms.

GOVERNMENT TO BUILD DOCK.

Honolulu, Dec. 25.—A report is current in army circles here that the government may take over the construction of a drydock in Pearl harbor which private contractors have tried without success to build. Elaborate foundation work for the drydock collapsed a year ago.

WOMEN SUFFOCATE IN FIRE.

Providence, R. I., Dec. 25.—Mrs. Margaret Bailey, 63 years old, and her granddaughter, Miss Margaret Murphy, 15 years old, were suffocated in a fire in their home early today. The bodies were found by firemen. The property damage was slight.
